

Self modeling video workshop using Ipad and Imovie

Presenter: Anthea Naylor

Anthea has many years of experience in teaching both secondary, primary levels in both mainstream, independent and special education settings. She holds a Masters of Education from Deakin University in Special Education and Advanced Certificate in Autism- from ACU. Anthea has broad experience working with Autism, ADHD, cerebral palsy, intellectual disabilities and developmental delays.

What is the workshop?

Video Self Modelling- an evidence based intervention for rapid skill acquisition and Challenging behaviour management.

Come along and learn to make an educational, self behaviour modelling video!

Help your child to learn appropriate behaviour!

Who is the workshop for: Families with children with challenging behaviour

Teachers/carers with student with challenging behaviour

Therapists/Professionals

What do you need to bring? Ipad with Imovie program on the Ipad

Date: 6/May/2017

Time: 9.30-12.30 workshop

Individual case can be discussed after workshop

Location : Pearce community centre 1 Collett place Pearce Building 1.

Cost: $30/family

Contact Mandy at FBIC
E: fbiact@shout.org.au
M: Gabi@ 0415347306

Friends of Brain Injured
Children/ Westpac community foundation